Re: Wolff v. NH Department of Corrections, 06-cv-321-PB

Dear Mr. Wolff:

I am writing in response to your submission entitled "Motion" received October 22, 2007.

First, because it is very difficult to read and interpret your submission, I apologize in advance if I am misconstruing your submission. Although the submission has the words "Motion" in the text, it contains no discernable relief sought from the court and, as a result, I do not construe this as a motion. Fed. R. Civ. P. 7(b)(1). From my review of the document, it appears to be an effort to submit evidence to support your claims regarding the prison's failure to provide you with a kosher diet. Because the Office of the Clerk of Court does not serve as an evidence repository for litigants and does not accept custody of "evidence" or "discovery" on behalf of litigants, I am returning this material to you without presenting the matter to a judicial officer for review. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d), evidence may be filed with the court only when filed as an exhibit to a properly filed pleading in the case or otherwise ordered by the court.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Lynch
Chief Deputy Clerk
